FAREWELL RECEPTION

DR. AND MRS. SOPER AND MISS SOPER HONORED BY CHURCH PEOPLE

On Thursday evening, October 16, a large crowd (a hundred at least) of the members and friends of the Casa Verdugo M. E. Church met at the church, under the leadership of Mrs. Cotton and Mrs. Olmstead and Messrs. Olmstead and Tyrell, and gave a farewell to the Soper family, who have lived in North Glendale five years. Mr. Tyrell acted as chairman. After some games by the younger folk under the direction of Miss Ethel Murphy, the chairman took charge. "America" was sung heartily. Miss Maud Salisbury at the piano. The chairman after making some very appropriate remarks, introduced the speakers and singers. Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern, of the Lutheran Church, were present. Mr. Mottern gave a very felicitous address, bringing the greetings of the Ministerial Union of Glendale, of which he is the secretary. Miss Alice Green, for the Church, presented a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations to Mrs. Soper; Misses Dorothy Cotton and Lulu Drake, representing her S. S. class and Intermediate League, a bouquet of golden chrysanthemums to Miss Soper; and Miss Ethel Murphy, for the Senior League, a beautiful silver pocket pencil to Miss Soper. HONORING MRS. CASSELL

The committee chairmen of the Doran Street P. T. A. and teachers of the school entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leon W. Sonntag, 119 South Glendale avenue, with a farewell function in honor of Mrs. Cassell, formerly president of the Association, who is leaving to make her home on a ranch near Burbank. Special decorations suggested ranch life and each lady brought a little remembrance for the guest of honor which would be of use on a ranch. Ladies present were: Misses Hatch, Land, Dale and Collins, teachers in the Doran School, Mesdames Barton, Wintersgill, Barnett, Speck, L. W. Richardson, Taggart, Ringquist, Clark, Plasterer, Johnson and the hostess.

THURSDAY CLUB MEETS

A preliminary get-together meeting of members of the Thursday Afternoon Club was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. J. Becker, of 342 West Eulalia street. It was the first meeting of the new club year, and the new president, Mrs. E. V. Bacon, occupied the chair. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon.

IOWA PROSPERITY

MRS. SUEL SPAULDING REPORTS MONEY VERY PLENTIFUL IN MIDDLE WEST

Mrs. Suel Spaulding of Park avenue and Brand, has returned from a very pleasant sojourn of several weeks with friends in her old home in Des Moines, Iowa, and nearby points in that state and in Kansas, her itinerary including Des Moines and Newton, Iowa, Arkansas City and Wichita, Kansas. She attended county fairs and also the Iowa State Fair which greatly impressed her by its many evidences of prosperity. Iowa has had a very favorable season and all crops are large. All are also finding a ready market at high prices and there seems to be no lack of money which is being freely spent. Automobiles are so numerous that they average one to every five persons. While it is pleasant to see so much business prosperity Mrs. Spaulding says she was more than ever convinced that California is the place to live on account of its climatic conditions, although she did not suffer from heat in Iowa because her visit was timed so late in the season. She is very glad to get home, however. Her daughter, Miss Louisiana Spaulding, has come from San Bernardino, where she is teaching, to spend the week-end with her parents.

AVIATOR GUEST

MR. AND MRS. E. A. RADCLIFF ENTERTAINING SON RETURNED FROM SERVICE

Mrs. E. A. Radcliff, of 426 Pioneer Drive, have had great pleasure in the entertainment of their son, Leland Stanford Radcliff, who arrived about three weeks ago. He is a returned soldier and had the rank of Corporal in the 100th Aero Squadron overseas. He had varied service as motor mechanic, and instructor, and as airman on bombing planes. Under his orders to instruct he went to England and also had opportunities to see many parts of France. He says that at the time the armistice was signed large fleets of bombing planes were in waiting heavily loaded with bombing material to be discharged against the enemy. Besides experiences as a fighting man he had other adventures. He is a survivor of the torpedoed ship "Tuscania," which was sunk off the coast of Ireland in February, 1918. In explanation of his escape when hundreds of soldiers were lost he tells of running to the rear of the ship, leaping and catching the rope of a British destroyer which drew him in. For two days he was ill from the exposure but completely recovered and is now apparently in perfect health. He returned to the United States about the first of June and received his discharge in Michigan. Since that time he has been visiting relatives in Chicago and at Ida Grove, Iowa. From there he came west by auto accompanied by members of the family with whom his parents crossed the continent in October, 1918. Mr. and Mrs. Radcliff are hoping he will locate in Southern California, but he has had fine business offers from the east and has not yet decided what he will do.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. McIrvin, of 620 Orange Grove avenue, enjoyed a very pleasant celebration Thursday evening of their ninth wedding anniversary. Five hundred furnished the diversion of the evening and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fishel, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Warman of Los Angeles, Lehman Crandall, Miller and Joe Fishel, Walter Gurnee, and Mrs. H. M. Merrill. The home of the hostess was beautifully decorated in the Halloween colors which were also carried out in the refreshments.

COLLEGE FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. A. W. Tower, of 615 South Adams on Thursday entertained at luncheon old college friends who were members of the Alpha Phi sorority of De Pauw University at Greencastle, Ind. The party included Mrs. Mary Cauble, of Indianapolis, her sister, Mrs. Mabel Cartwright of San Gabriel, Cal., Mrs. Clifford Battelle, also of San Gabriel, and Mrs. Fred Lang of Eagle Rock. The ladies spent a pleasant afternoon talking over old times and drove to Eagle Rock to the home of Mrs. Lang, Mrs. Tower and Mrs. Battelle had not met since 1904.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

Charles Shattuck, who has been connected with the Pulliam Undertaking Company since its employe, Emil Keefe, entered the service of Uncle Sam, severed his connection with the company as soon as the sailor was discharged and able to return to his job. Mr. Shattuck's first love is the automobile business and he has been under engagement to associate himself with the Studebaker Agency as soon as he could free himself honorably from Mr. Pulliam's business. He will therefore be found hereafter at the offices of Packer & White.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the City W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Murdock at 376 West California avenue Thursday afternoon. Dr. Lillis-Wood Star, who is instructor of nurses at the Glendale Sanitarium, made a fine anti-tobacco talk and lecture on diet. Solos by Miss Olive Adams who sang "God Knows All" and Mrs. Helen Kneid accompanied by Mrs. Belle Kuehny, who sang "Rose of My Heart," completed the program.

Mrs. Starr and three others were received into membership. The organization now has 150 members.

THE SUGAR SHORTAGE

DR. ALONZO TAYLOR, FORMERLY OF WAR TRADE BOARD, TESTIFIES BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—"If the sugar supply is taken from the control of the governments of the world a shortage is sure to be felt and prices will be high," Dr. Alonzo Taylor told the Senate subcommittee which is investigating the sugar situation, today. Dr. Taylor represented the Secretary of Agriculture at the hearing. He was formerly a member of the War Trade Board.

The people of Europe are protesting against government restrictions but the people of America are consuming what they please regardless of price," said Dr. Taylor.

The committee is considering a bill to continue the sugar equalization board for one year.

FOOTBALL GAME

GLENDALE HIGH TEAM WRESTS VICTORY FROM DEFEAT IN SENSATIONAL CONTEST

The first league game of the football season was played on the Glendale field Friday afternoon, the team of G. U. H. being opposed by Monrovia High players. It drew a large crowd of spectators in addition to the rooters from the school and was an event of great interest because of the fluctuating character of the contest. The first half of the game ended in gloom for Glendale with the score standing 7 to nothing in favor of Monrovia. Whether its desperate situation nerved the local team to greater exertion or the visiting players were undone by prosperity does not appear, but the local team seemed to get its fighting clothes on and presently got in a run which changed the score 7 to 7. It also added a touch-down to its victories but failed to kick the goal bringing the score up to 13 to 7. A field goal kick brought three more points, the game ending 16 to 7 in favor of Glendale amid a pandemonium of cheering for the local heroes of the occasion. Kenneth Wilde is captain of the team, other players being Max Price, Roger and Bernard Dennison, Stewart McMillan, Fred Jenkins, Leland Wise, Floyd Herman, Merle Eckles, Victor Francy, Edward Smith, Elmer Gee, Marsh Truitt and Wright.

EASTERN RELATIVES ENTERTAINED

Mrs. I. N. East, of 213 South Jackson street, entertained about fourteen relatives last Thursday with a dinner of several courses in honor of guests from Anderson, Ind., and Wheeling, Va. Covers were laid for Mrs. Sparr of Glendale, Mrs. D. C. East of Anderson, Ind., her daughter-in-law, Mrs. East, of the same city, her daughter from Wheeling, Va., Mr. and Mrs. A. S. East of Los Angeles, the host and members of her family. All the members of the party remained for a social afternoon.

SHE MET THE KING AND QUEEN

The Hills are from Toledo, Ohio, where their home was directly opposite that of Mr. Whitlock.

LOCAL BROTHERHOODS

SEVENTEEN MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HOLD INTERESTING SESSION

The executive committee of the Federated Brotherhoods of Glendale Churches met Thursday evening at the First Methodist Church. Seventeen representative men were in attendance, viz., A. G. Lindley, W. F. Wood, Rev. E. H. Willisford, F. M. Farrand, W. N. Bott, Rev. S. B. Warner, A. J. Drury, Rev. C. M. Crist, George F. Ward, Henry Johnston, Albert Chappell, Rev. E. Hoskyn, Fred Potter, George F. Daugherty, L. C. Leeds, William Reynolds and C. W. Ingledue.

President A. G. Lindley called the session to order and Rev. E. H. Willisford offered prayer. The committee then organized by electing Albert Chappell vice-president; E. Hoskyn, secretary, and George F. Daugherty, treasurer.

A committee was appointed to consider the legality of using church edifices for purposes other than strictly religious ones, where such uses are for the community welfare. A resolution was adopted pledging the Federated Brotherhood to co-operation with the Y. M. C. A. in steps it is taking for the promotion of its work. President Lindley spoke of the work already done preparatory to the organization of a "Y" in Glendale. Mr. Chappell gave an interesting talk on the relations of capital and labor. The committee then adjourned to the social hall where light refreshments were served.

UNITY CHAPTER DANCE

The dance given Friday evening at Masonic Temple by Chapter 116, R. A. M., was a very pleasant but quite informal affair. There were no printed dance programs, but there was fine music, which was more important. It was largely patronized by young people and proved a very satisfactory social affair.

ELKS' NIGHT AT FAIR

MANY MEMBERS OF LODGE 99 OF LOS ANGELES AND LOCAL B. P. O. E.'S ATTEND

Elks responded with enthusiasm to the invitation to participate in the Country Fair at La Ramada Friday night and were there in large numbers both from the local lodge and from Lodge 99 of Los Angeles. Officers of B. P. O. E. 1289 were present, some of whom were put to work making sales; for an attendance of five hundred or more visitors made brisk trade at all the booths. Mr. Monahan reported that the day's receipts at the "Hickville Emporium" were one hundred per cent larger than on Thursday, and he was promising all patrons extraordinary bargains tonight when his stock in trade will all be closed out, probably at auction. Ice cream and candy saleswomen had to be brisk to cover all the demands for their toothsome offerings and the toy booth under Mr. Brennan had a rushing trade.

Mrs. June Stone, who is now a resident of Glendale, is to sing tonight. She was not able to appear last night. An excellent program was given, however, in the way of fancy dancing by Mrs. F. Salmacia and James Reynolds and Mr. Reynolds also gave vocal numbers. Little Robert Lehman was also on the program with song and dance numbers and impersonations which delighted his big audiences.

Tonight the festival ends with a big hurrah and auction of everything left in stock. From the returns thus far it is evident the total receipts will run into the thousands, but no figures will be given out until accounts have been balanced and the money is in the hands of the treasurer of the building fund of the Holy Family Catholic Church, for which the Fair is a benefit.

GUILD MEETING

The Westminster Guild of Glendale Presbyterian Church met at the home of Miss Inez Harrison, 505 N. Louise street, Thursday evening. Miss Vera Sinclair read a chapter on foreign missions. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Games were played and refreshments of ice cream, cake and fudge were served. Guests were Misses Elizabeth Edmonds, Martha Eilers, Elizabeth Inglis, Mary McMill, Phyllis Baker, Mary Wilkin, Helen Brinkoff, Margaret Fife, Margaret West, Constance Domsler, Eleanor Foster, Mary Simpson, May Lyons, Vera Grant, Vera Sinclair, Mrs. Drake and the hostess, Inez Harrison.

The XVI. Club, an organization which meets at the homes of the various members for purely social purposes, was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Hazen Collins, of 5854 Brentwood avenue, Los Angeles, who as Miss Mary Fanset was a popular member of the Club when living in Glendale.

APPRECIATION

WIDOW OF LIEUT. HENRY W. WEBB RECEIVES LIEUT. GEN. LIGGETT'S TRIBUTE

Friends of the late Lieut. Henry W. Webb will appreciate the letter addressed to his widow by Lieut. General Liggett of the United States Army, expressing his admiration for the flyer and his grief over his untimely death. Following is the letter:

"Headquarters Western Dept.,
"San Francisco, Cal.,
"October 14, 1919.

"My Dear Mrs. Webb:—
"I wish to express to you my sympathy over the loss of your husband, Lieut. Henry W. Webb, who lost his life while performing one of the most hazardous duties allotted to a pilot in the air service—I refer to the duties of a Forest Patrol pilot.

"Lieut. Webb was a pilot of unusual ability. He had courage of a high order and his many months' experience had made him resourceful and conservative.

"Throughout the war he performed work of inestimable value as a dual instructor and as an officer in charge of a dual stage. He was considered one of the best instructors at Rockwell Field, and was held in highest regard by all who knew him. His work on forest patrol has been of equal value and character. In his loss the army is deprived of a man of sterling qualities and one who will be hard to replace.

"Assuring you of my heartfelt sympathy,

"Sincerely yours,
"H. LIGGETT.
"Lieut. General, U. S. Army."

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1919

PASADENA VS. GLENDALE

Just whether Glendale or Pasadena feels the effects of the turn down awarded to them by the King's party is an unanswered question at present. The man Nye who had the engineering of things must have gone according to the wishes of his Royal guests, and the sequel of the affair is that the King preferred to spend 40 minutes at a Movie Studio rather than bow to the boys and girls who stood in line for several hours to get a glimpse of the first real King they had ever seen.

OPEN MUFFLERS TABOO

VENICE POLICE CHIEF DECIDES TO HAVE PEACE AND QUIET OR KNOW WHY

From Venice, Cal., comes the ultimatum that motorists will stop awakening the echoes of the stillly canals there with open mufflers or suffer the consequences. Just how strong the sentiment exists, is shown in the following report:

"The Venice police chief is going to make autoists stop riding through the streets with open mufflers. There is hardly any noise more calculated to drive one into temporary insanity than the hideous clang of the open muffler. The drivers care nothing for the repose of people. They open their mufflers in the early morning and keep them open late at night. There is nothing that compares with the noise from puffing auto engines and there is nothing that can be so easily remedied if the law is put in force."—Touring Topics.

WET AND DRY WEATHER DRIVERS

"Wet-weather" and "dry-weather" motoring drivers are gumming up a traffic throughout this part of the state, according to a report issued yesterday by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Do you belong to either one of these two types? the organization wants to know. If so, it might be well to change your tactics.

The "dry weather" driver is the one who perambulates down the very center of the street or road, taking up more than his share of the thoroughfare and maintaining an awkwardly slow pace, making it practically impossible for others to pass him because he is so far toward the center.

The "wet weather" driver is a bird of another color. He hugs the curbs or the ditches when it rains and generally messes up things because he allows almost enough room for two vehicles to pass him, but not enough. However, the Auto Club does not put the "wet weather" type in the same low category as the "dry weather" hound, since so much unpleasantness does not attach to his methods. Don't belong to either of these groups, asks the club, but always maintain a fair and central position on the road in the direction in which the vehicle is traveling and all will be right with the world.

SAVE THE MISSIONS

It will be of interest to the motorists of America to learn that California is going to try to preserve the sun-cathedrals of the west. This is a

AVOID R. R. ACCIDENTS

MOTORISTS ARE ASKED TO AVOID RAILROAD ACCIDENTS FROM OCT. 18 UNTIL OCT. 31

From October 18th until October 31st is the period set aside for the diminution of automobile accidents so far as the railroads are accomplices, and during that time it is expected that there will be no auto-railroad accidents.

At least that is what the Railway Administration at Washington is hoping, and the Automobile Club of Southern California, as the most powerful body of motorists in America, has been asked to co-operate.

So motorists throughout Southern California are asked by club representatives and officials to refrain from running into any railroads or railway trains, whether stationary or moving, and to avoid having any trains running into them.

Motorists are likewise asked to use unusual caution in crossing railroad tracks so as not to be hit by an engine or train of cars, and if hit, they are asked to be hit as gently as possible so that little or no damage shall be done either to the car or its occupants.

It is believed by the railways operating throughout the southern part of the state, that if motorists will get the habit of not being run into so much, this habit will become permanent, and the "no accident" period will have become a success.

SMITH IS OPTIMISTIC

As evidence that Jesse E. Smith of the Glendale Ford Agency never looks at the losing side of a worthy proposition, he a few days ago remarked at a booster banquet when efforts were being made to raise a specified amount of money: "I will raise $2000 additional or go to jail and I am not going to jail."

gigantic task which has been undertaken—to rehabilitate the melting adobe of the centuries, but it is unmistakable that there is a growing sentiment in favor of the action.

Most of the twenty-one Missions lining the old King's Highway, which the padres forged through wild, unexplored country, are either in total or partial ruins.

So, it is believed that through agitation so imperative that it will awaken the most remote communities and through allowing the opportunity for every one to help—if even a little—the funds will be raised and the Missions will be saved.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

How to keep the car you drive out of the repair shop when you need it for the business trip or on the Saturdays and Sundays you planned to spend in the country with the family has long been an owner-worry.

That the real solution of the service problem will be found shortly in the construction of the motor car itself is the interesting prediction of E. J. Jackson, Willys-Overland dealer in Glendale.

"The light-weight popular car of tomorrow," says Mr. Jackson, "will have its service built right into it. Today the purchaser of any car expects to undergo certain service adjustments, repairs and so forth after his car goes into use. Tomorrow he will ask that most of this sort of service be built into the car before he buys it."

"And this can be done with the careful selection of material and the right balancing of parts in a car of right design. Manufacturers who retain leadership will check these important details as never before. They will be certain that their car is right before the public passes judgment."

REPORTING ON ROAD CONDITIONS

History repeating itself has put a lot of motoring parties in a jam throughout the southern part of the state on account of some well-intentioned but misleading road reports issued by amateurs whose zeal exceeds their capability, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California.

"If you are not qualified to report accurately on highway conditions, don't make the attempt," says the club.

The matter of stating whether or not a road is in good condition for travel involves wide experience, and familiarity with all types of highways, and road reporting is a matter of comparative values, it is pointed out.

For instance, what is a good road to some motorists is a poor route to others, and individual opinion on the matter has little or no value, yet many newspapers in Southern California are flooded with comments on the condition of a route made by some individual who misleads others by imposing his private ideas on the subject.

It is only after 15 years of hard work that the Automobile Club has been able to bring its touring bureau service to the point of perfection it has now attained, say club officers, and the road reports issued by it are based upon this long experience. If "stunts" are to be published for advertising purposes, it is suggested that something else than road condition, poor or good, be employed.

The club's touring bureaus report that every day scores of complaints are registered on account of motorists reading "amateur" reports on highways and then finding that they have been grievously misled. Some time ago the club issued such a request but the epidemic of "amateuritis" has broken out again, history repeating itself!

one dollar check, seventy-six dollars in all, given in recognition of his long pastorate, in which his daughter shared so largely and faithfully. This generous gift was made in anticipation of Dr. Soper's seventy-fifth birthday anniversary, not far off—and one dollar to grow on; as some one expressed it. Responses—touching and appreciative—were made by each of the Soper family. Mrs. Soper, though far from strong, and entirely deaf, arose to the occasion and made a telling and loving speech, thanking the people for their loyalty, devotion and generosity—emphasizing the responses of husband and daughter, neither of which she heard. The hearts of each were too full for utterance. All felt the thrill of her words.

Then followed fine musical renderings: Miss Salisbury played a special selection on the piano; Prof. Padel, formerly teacher of vocal music in New Mexico University at Albuquerque, three songs, Miss Gladys Sharp accompanied on the piano, and two songs by J. B. Clarke with the same accompanist.

Refreshments—cake and ice cream—were served in a most generous and liberal manner. It was after 11 p. m. when the crowd finally broke up.

Dr. Soper's successor has not yet been appointed, so he will preach both morning and evening this coming Sunday.

Dr. Davis, District Superintendent, writes him: "I am working on the 'supply' for this year and feel we will be able to please the folks. Kindly report progress to them on Sunday. We could supply it easily, as there are many applicants; but we want just the right person to conserve, and build up your great work. Sorry to impose upon you to continue a Sunday or two longer."

ALLEY-CATS ARE OUT

LOS ANGELES DECIDES TO ENFORCE CITY LAW ON PARKING AND SPEED

What, ho! The lid has been clamped on "alley parking" in the City of Los Angeles, and visiting and local motorists there can no longer rest their tired machines in the shade of the skyscrapers in the downtown sections.

According to word received from the Police Department, every little auto found hiding out in a Los Angeles alley is going to have a string tied 'round its neck and on the string will be a printed invitation to call at that gloomy mausoleum on First street to either pay a fine or decorate the rusty side of a cell door.

It is the city ordinance which makes this possible.

Another little thing they are going to be particular about in Los Angeles is the speeding over street crossings where the green signs say "twelve miles per hour." According to the traffic police, this means each and every hour, with no exceptions, and there are going to be no exceptions to those who are sent up to the First street moratorium.

For the benefit of any visitors reaching Los Angeles and not having read this notice, the Automobile Club of Southern California is going to sign-post every necessary alley in the city, each sign remarking upon the fact that to park in said alley is taboo and quoting the ordinance to that effect.

Common Causes of Tire Injury

□ Tips That Will Save You Dollars □

By M. D. BIXBY

Los Angeles Branch Manager B.F. Goodrich Rubber Co.

BLOWOUTS RESULTING FROM STONE BRUISE

One of the most mysterious things that happen to pneumatic tires is the blowout that follows a stone bruise.

A tire may sometimes "blow up" while standing still. Likewise it may give way while running over a glassy smooth pavement. In either case the owner curses the tire, its maker and the man who sold it to him.

Very few people who ride on pneumatic tires understand their qualities and limitations. Not one person in a hundred takes into consideration the terrific strain put upon tires when traveling at high speeds over ordinary roads. It is hard to visualize the terrific impact when a tire strikes a stone the size of an egg imbedded in the road while going at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour.

At the time such a blow is struck possibly only half a dozen threads in one or two of the powerful plies of fabric are broken. These loose threads at once become a source of trouble. The breaking of one layer of fabric permits the threads to chafe each other, setting up an internal friction that causes further disintegration. The other plies soon break down and the blowout comes, usually at a time when circumstances point to no apparent cause.

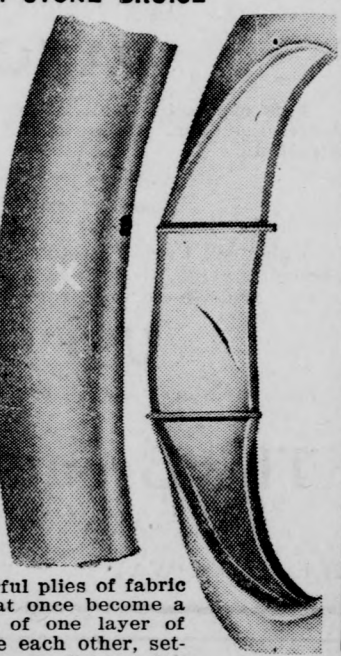

On the inside of the tire shown in this illustration, you will notice a large break in the fabric. This resulted from an accident, the wheel passing over a stone about the size of two fists, causing the injury shown without leaving the slightest mark or indentation on the outside of the case.

In a tire subjected to this abnormal strain, the fabric is bound to give way, but it does not necessarily follow that the outer cover will be marred, especially if the object is smooth and blunt.

To better explain the point, if a tire under pressure should receive a hard blow from a sledge-hammer, the fabric would break in this manner without leaving the slightest mark or indentation on the outside of the case.

For your own curiosity, take a piece of heavy rubber, and with a hammer, see how difficult it is to make an indentation in it. Sometimes a tire may be run weeks after the fabric is broken from the bruise before the blowout occurs. It has even happened in a garage, with the car standing still. Sometimes the break will only exist in a few of the plies of fabric, which will pinch the inner tube, allowing the tire to deflate gradually.

Tires should be inspected by a good repair man periodically. A bruised tire can be successfully repaired by removing the damaged fabric and rubber and re-vulcanizing. Motorists, themselves, should occasionally examine the inside of the casing to see if the fabric is ruptured. This should always be done before an extended trip.

The game was very exciting. In fact, few games of the year had proved to be nearly so interesting. I was terribly excited to see whether the man on first was going to risk stealing. Suddenly Kitty pinched my arm. I looked at her.

"Jack, isn't it exciting?"

"Wonderful," I replied with joy.

"That man on first—"

"Yes—that fellow," I was overjoyed to see how she had grasped the situation.

"See him?" she asked.

"Yes, of course." As if I would miss anything!

"Look to right—no, the left."

That was behind the base where the man who was about to steal was jumping about.

PREFERRED FOR ITS SERVICE AND ITS THRIFT

While the Oakland Sensible Six is moderately priced, this able and economical car cannot be put in any definite price class.

There are, for example, many Oakland owners who could well afford a more expensive automobile had their good judgment prompted the purchase of a costlier car.

They selected the Oakland Sensible Six because of the unfailing service that it renders and the constant savings in operating costs that it effects.

How practical and satisfactory is the lightweight principle of construction, as pioneered and developed in the Oakland Sensible Six is best evidenced by the fact that Oakland owners regularly report returns of from 18 to 25 miles from the gallon of gasoline and from 8,000 to 12,000 miles on tires.

Mrs. Joseph Griffin and her children spent Wednesday at Brookside Park with a party of friends which included Mrs. George Reeves and her sons, Billie and Jack, of Van Nys, and Miss Edith Stine of Redlands.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, of 614 South Central avenue, are nearing home. After spending a month at Sheridan Beach, near Michigan City, Ind., and visiting in New York, Nebr., Centralia, Wash., and Portland, Oregon, they are now in San Francisco and are expected to reach Glendale the first of the coming week.

T. I. Stephens, who for several years was superintendent of the Glendale-Montrose Railway at this place and who gave up his position last spring and moved to Fresno where he is now engaged in business, was in Glendale Thursday and Friday of this week making arrangements to move his family to Fresno. Mr. Stephens speaks well of Fresno as a live business place, but it is not a desirable residential location.

Mrs. George Smith, of East Broadway, is in receipt of letters from Miss Susine Wessels and Miss Olds reporting their safe arrival in South Africa and that they found the mother of Miss Wessels very ill. The arrival of her daughter had a magical effect, however, and she at once began to mend. She has suffered the loss of two daughters since last Christmas, one of whom had passed away without the knowledge of Miss Wessels.

NEVER LOSE YOUR NERVE

If you are going to die, do it with your boots on. A young doughboy was brought in from the field to the hospital. He was a splendid specimen of young American manhood. The army surgeon examined his wounds, shook his head and sought the chaplain.

"The boy cannot live," he said, "and I think it best that you tell him so."

The chaplain went to the doughboy's bed, leaned over and whispered:

"Doc is a little discouraged, buddy. Doesn't think there's much of a chance. Is there something I could do for you, old man?"

"You mean, I'm going West?" the boy weakly asked.

"But he didn't say how soon, you know. Probably—Is there some word you want sent by me, personally? You know—I'd do it. Isn't there something I could do for you?"

The boy understood. He pointed to his coat, and said, between painful breaths:

"My inside pocket."

The chaplain got the coat, felt the inside pocket and extracted a pocket-book. When he held it up, the boy nodded.

"Open it," he said.

The chaplain found it contained a ten-dollar bill.

"What shall I do with it?" he asked.

The boy smiled grimly as he answered.

"Bet you ten dollars that I don't die!"

The boy won.

Did It Ever Occur to You---

That the most worthless assets ever found in any man's estate are his good intentions?

That you don't mean you will take the chances, but that you will let your family take the chances?

That you may be one of the ninety-seven out of every 100 who make a failure in life?

That your breath and liabilities don't end at the same time?

That an insurance policy is a will that no lawyer can set aside?

That neighboring sympathy for the widow is good, but the company's draft is better?

That a widow's tears falling on an empty table will not bring food—unless they fall on an insurance policy on that table?

THOMAS-WINSEL

DAUGHTER OF BELGIAN CONSUL AND MRS. WINSEL MARRIES LOS ANGELES MAN

Miss Elise Winsel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winsel, was married Thursday evening, October 16, 1919, at the home of her parents at 642 North Jackson street, to James Thomas, of Los Angeles. About twenty-five relatives were present to witness the nuptials, Rev. Charles Scott, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, officiating. The bride wore her going away gown of taupe velvet and there were no attendants. After the congratulations had been showered and a dainty wedding supper had been served, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left by auto for Santa Barbara, where their honeymoon will be spent. On their return they will make their home in Los Angeles. The bride attended Glendale Union High School for several years and has a large circle of friends here.

Mrs. Dora Gibson reports great enthusiasm among pupils of the music department of Glendale High who are practicing selections from the bright little opera, "Tycoon," in preparation for the school vaudeville which will take place earlier in the season than last year. She says they are doing very good work.
